

STAFF/RESIDENT RATIO – MORE IS...MORE

Levels of staffing equate directly to the care your relation is going to get.

You should be worried at anything more than five or six residents to every carer.

If it's a nursing home, there should be nurses in each area where there are nursing residents and more carers.

One nurse for a 70-bed nursing home is simply not enough – even at night.